

Privacy Policy

ESignalProgrammer.com (A DigitalTradingSystems.com Website) and its affiliates (hereinafter referred to as "ESignalProgrammer.com (A DigitalTradingSystems.com Website)", "we" or "us") are committed to maintaining the privacy of every current, former and prospective customer ("Customer") and to comply with the US legislation on data protection. This privacy policy ("Policy") gives details on how we use personal information that we collect on our website ("Site") and in the course of our contractual relationship with you. This Policy may be updated at any time. Please ensure that you regularly read the latest version of this page.

Information We Collect

If you visit our website or wish to obtain services from us or via us, we record a variety of information. You provide some of this data yourself, e.g. your name, address, e-mail address, etc., when you register for our services. We may also collect personal information about you from applications, forms or questionnaires you may complete or agreements you enter into with us or in the course of your establishing or maintaining a customer relationship with us.

We use such information about you to verify your eligibility to receive our services, to provide our services to you or via us and to provide information to you about products and services that we believe may be of interest to you. We further use your data for compliance purposes, in particular in connection with the legal requirements relating to "know-your-customer".

Protection, Processing and Use of Personal Data

We use your personal information to provide the services to you and to comply with our legal obligations. We take appropriate precautions to restrict access to your personal data to only those who need to know that information and maintain appropriate measures to protect the information from loss, misuse or inadvertent destruction.

If we provide a service in cooperation with third parties or via third parties, we may disclose data relating to you to these third parties, provided such disclosure is necessary for the provision and processing of services, for billing purposes or for compliance purposes (in particular with requirements in connection with prevention of money laundering).

We would like to point out that legislation and regulations relating to the safeguarding, processing and transmission of personal data may be different in other countries from the related provisions in your country. By ordering our services, you agree to your data being transmitted abroad including to countries that do not guarantee the same level of data protection as your country of domicile.

We will retain your personal information in accordance with applicable data protection laws for so long as it is needed.

Security of Data Transfer

Please note that data that is transferred over an open network, such as the Internet or e-mail, may be accessible to anybody. We cannot guarantee the confidentiality of any communication or material transmitted via such open networks. When disclosing any personal information via an open network, you should be aware of the fact that it is potentially accessible to others, and consequently, can be collected and used by others without your consent. Even if both the sender and recipient or the data are located in the same country data may also be transmitted via such networks to other countries regularly and without controls, including to countries that do not guarantee the same level of data protection as your country of domicile.

Your data may be lost during transmission or may be accessed by unauthorized parties. We do not accept any liability for direct or indirect losses as regards the security of your data during its transfer via Internet. Please use other means of communication if you think this is necessary or prudent for security reasons.
